Student Journal

Lesson 2: Preventing Infectious Disease

Health terms

airborne
bacteria
blood borne direct contact
disease
feces
food borne
fungi
germ
hepatitis
HIV (human immunodeficiency virus)
host immune system
immunization indirect contact infectious disease
noninfectious disease
norovirus
parasite pathogen
protozoa
sterilize
vaccine
virus

Journal entry

Write a few sentences about how being ill could affect a person's quality of life. How does a temporary sickness or infection, such as a cold or the flu, affect quality of life? What about a more serious or longer-lasting illness?

Infectious Diseases

Caused by pathogens

(continued)

©ETR

Lesson 2: Preventing Infectious Disease (continued)

Infectious Diseases (continued)

Passed by direct contact with an infected person or body fluids.

Can also be passed by indirect contact.

Noninfectious diseases

Class discussion notes

(continued)

©ETR

Lesson 2: Preventing Infectious Disease (continued)

Class discussion notes (continued)

©ETR